

The little metal kettle

Activity

- Read 'The Kettle', by Gwynneth Thurburn, and talk about what it means.
- Ask the children to stand up each time they hear the word "kettle" and read the poem through again.
- Try reciting it at different speeds asking the children clap along to the rhythm of each line.
- Explore rhyme, rhythm, and alliteration by sounding out two words or lines at a time.